Estate Planning Seminar for Seniors

Date : March 30, 2011

Category : general

Description :

The Club at Briarcliff Manor, the region's premier senior living community under development in Briarcliff Manor, will host a seminar titled "Preserving Your Assets Through Proper Estate Planning" on key elements of estate planning on Wednesday, March 30 from 2 – 4 pm at The Club's new Information and Design Center at 25 Scarborough Road in Briarcliff Manor. Topics to be discussed include will and trust planning and the distinction between the two, the new estate tax laws and basic strategies for maximum retention of assets.

Steven A. Schurkman, Esq., a partner of Keane & Beane, PC in White Plains will conduct the seminar. Mr. Schurkman, who has more than 30 years experience in the practice of law focusing in the areas of estate planning, probate and elder law, is Vice President of the Westchester Estate Planning Council and former chair of the Elder Law Section of the Westchester County Bar Association. He is a former chair and current member of the Board of the Westchester Public/Private Partnership for Aging Services, Inc. and a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. Mr. Schurkman is a frequent lecturer in the area of estate planning and the author of a well-known handbook on estate & financial planning, and healthcare planning.

The seminar will be followed by a tour of the new model residences furnished by award-winning interior designers. Seating is limited.
