John P. Sullivan of Sullivan Architecture Joins The Club at Briarcliff Manor Advisory Board

BRIARCLIFF MANOR, NY (January 2010) – The Club at Briarcliff Manor, a new $350 million fee-for-service Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) under development in Briarcliff Manor, has announced that John P. Sullivan, FAIA, President of Sullivan Architecture, has joined The Club at Briarcliff Manor’s Advisory Board.

Mr. Sullivan’s firm, which is located in White Plains, provides site planning and architectural design services to both the public and private sector. The firm maintains a diversified client and project portfolio with a clientele that includes corporations, real estate development companies, municipalities, not-for-profit organizations and educational and religious institutions. The firm has received ten Design Awards from the American Institute of Architects as well as numerous other trade and civil awards.

Mr. Sullivan has been operating his own architectural firm for over 28 years. His firm has designed a number of independent senior housing communities in Westchester. Sullivan Architecture is the architect for the 24 townhomes and 13 free-standing villas in the “Lower Village” at The Club at Briarcliff Manor.

Mr. Sullivan currently serves on the Town of Bedford’s Planning Board, the President’s Advisory Council of the Northern Westchester Hospital, as well as other professional, civic and private organizations. He is a 22-year resident of Katonah.

The Club at Briarcliff Manor will feature 325 Independent Living residences, world-class amenities and services and a 60-unit Supportive Living Center where a licensed and professional staff will provide assisted living, memory support and skilled nursing care on-site 24 hours a day. The community is comprised of two residential “villages” complemented by the Clubhouse; Aquatics, Spa and Fitness Center; tennis courts; walking paths; beautifully landscaped grounds and a pond.

Amenities at The Club at Briarcliff Manor will include a full-service spa and salon; multiple dining venues; a state-of-the-art fitness center; Aquatics Center with heated indoor pool and whirlpool; Lodge Room with social space; outdoor tennis courts; private library; multi-media business center with wireless Internet; surround sound theater; 24-hour security; and extensive walking trails.
