

Photo courtesy of The Club

One of the model residences at The Club at Briarcliff Manor.

Interior designers share expertise

BRIARCLIFF MANOR — Award-winning interior designers who furnished the new model residences at The Club at Briarcliff Manor have been sharing their expertise on creating unique and personal homes at the Interior Design Event Series at The Club at Briarcliff Manor, New York's premier senior living community currently under development in Briarcliff Manor.

"Design Basics: Learn to Create the Best Furniture Layouts for Your Lifestyle" will be the topic of a presentation by Bloomingdale's Interior Design Studio's Senior Designer Carla Bloom Katzen on Friday, Feb. 25 at 10 a.m., the third and final event in the Interior Design Event Series held at the new Information and Design Center at 25 Scarborough Road, Briarcliff Manor.

Seating is limited and reservations are requested. To register, call (914) 923-4050 or sign up on The Club's website www.TheClubBCM.com.

Located on the former site of King's College, which was originally home to the historic Briarcliff Lodge, The Club at Briarcliff Manor is a fee-for-service continuing care retirement community under development featuring 325 spacious apartment homes, townhomes and villas with best-in-class services and amenities. Entrance fees for residences, which are 90 percent refundable, will begin at $699,900. The Club at Briarcliff is being developed by Integrated Development Group in partnership with the National Electrical Benefit Fund, a Washington D.C.-based pension fund with more than $10 billion in assets.