

Terry Minervini

The Club at Briarcliff Manor, a senior living community under development in Briarcliff Manor, reported that Terry Minervini has joined their organization as a Senior Living Counselor. In this role, she is responsible for creating, building and maintaining relationships with future residents as they plan for their future at The Club.

Minervini brings to her new position many years of experience as an effective resource for those exploring retirement communities. Prior to joining The Club, she developed her expertise as a sales professional working at continuing care retirement communities in Westchester and Fairfield counties, including Kendal on Hudson in Sleepy Hollow. She was most recently employed at The Watermark in Connecticut, where she served as a sales counselor and assisted in the organization and implementation of marketing events for seniors. Formerly from Yonkers, Minervini currently resides in New Fairfield, CT with her son, Tyler.

Located at 25 Scarborough Road in Briarcliff on the former site of King's College and the historic Briarcliff Lodge, The Club at Briarcliff Manor is a fee-for-service continuing care retirement community featuring 325 spacious apartment homes, townhomes and villas.
