

The Club at Briarcliff Manor is a continuing care retirement community.

Model units at the Club at Briarcliff Manor

The Club at Briarcliff Manor, a continuing care retirement community now under development, is holding seminars on interior design by the designers who have furnished its model homes.

The Art of Accessorizing, a hands-on demonstration by Ethan Allen designers Donna Weglarz, Justina Stein and Valerie Angiello, will be held Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 2 p.m.

Continuity Through Color, choosing the perfect palette for your home, will be offered by J.R. Cattington Interiors designer Joseph R. Stabile on Thursday, Feb. 17, at 2 p.m.

Design basics: Learn to create the best furniture layouts for your lifestyle will be presented by Bloomingdale's Interior Design Studio senior designer Carla Bloom Katzen on Friday, Feb. 25, at 10 a.m.

Seating is limited and RSVPs are requested to Jill, 923-4050.

The Club is also hosting seminars for prospective residents Wednesday, Feb. 16 and Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 2 p.m.

The Club is at 25 Scarborough Road, Briarcliff Manor. The seminars will be followed by tours of new designer-furnished models. RSVPs accepted at 923-4050 or www.TheClubBCM.com.