

ON THE RECORD

ALLAN CANALES of Norwalk, Conn., was appointed marketing and sales coordinator of the Norwalk, Conn., and Port Chester offices of Two Men and a Truck, the largest franchised moving company in North America. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business management from Central Connecticut State University.

SILAS DAWSON of Tenafly, N.J., was appointed financial services representative at The Cross Hudson Agency, an office of MetLife in Pearl River and White Plains. Most recently, he worked as a real estate broker and Realtor.

TRACY REDFERN of Maplewood, N.J., was promoted to senior vice president and business banking manager in the New York market for Wachovia, a Wells Fargo company. Most recently, she was a small-business leader at Wachovia. Redfern holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Atlantic Union College.

SARAH LAWRENCE COLLEGE in Yonkers announced the following appointments.

PAIGE CRANDALL of Yonkers was appointed dean of student affairs. Most recently, she was the interim dean of students at the University of Florida, Gainesville.

JOSEPH GIOVANNELLI of Manhattan was appointed vice president for finance and operations. Most recently, he was the associate dean for administration and finance at New York University's Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development.

CHARLES RASBERRY of New Rochelle was appointed vice president for advancement. Most recently, he was president of the Florida State University Foundation. Rasberry holds a Master of Arts degree in divinity from Princeton Seminary.

ROBERT WEISZ of Greenwich, Conn., chairman and CEO of RPW Group, a fully integrated real estate organization based in Rye Brook, was elected to the board of directors of Community Mutual Savings Bank, which operates under holding company CMS Bancorp Inc. and has corporate offices in White Plains.

NEWSMAKERS

BILL BECK of Yorktown Heights, vice president of operations at Club Fit in Jefferson Valley and Briarcliff Manor, was appointed to the advisory board of The Club at Briarcliff Manor, a $350 million fee-for-service continuing care retirement community. Beck holds a MBA degree from Pace University.

THOMAS BERTA was appointed vice president and branch manager of the Hutchinson Metro Center office of Yonkers-based Hudson Valley Bank. The office is scheduled to open this fall. Most recently, he was a regional sales support director for Citibank in the New York metropolitan area. Berta holds a MBA degree in financial management from Pace University.