The Club at Briarcliff Manor is being developed on Scarborough Road by Integrated Development Group, a company that specializes in the development of luxury senior living communities. It will be situated on 59 acres, and will be a fee-for-service continuing care retirement community, consisting of independent living apartments, townhomes and villas as well as a supportive living center. Independent living amenities and services include weekly housekeeping and linen service, landscaping and other interior and exterior maintenance services, several on-site restaurants, salon and spa, aquatics and fitness center, outdoor tennis courts, walking trails, private library and various rooms and spaces for gatherings and meetings. The supportive living center offers private apartments with 24-hour assisted living, memory support and skilled nursing care. For more information about this premier retirement community, contact one of the senior living sales counselors by phone or visit the Club's information and design center with model residences at 25 Scarborough Road.
