The Club at Briarcliff Manor Sponsors Estate Planning Council of Westchester Event

The Club at Briarcliff Manor, a new continuing care retirement community under development in Briarcliff Manor, recently sponsored a quarterly dinner meeting of the Estate Planning Council of Westchester County. The dinner meeting, which was held February 24th at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in White Plains, featured a presentation by The Club at Briarcliff Manor. Among those attending the event were, from left, Shelley Lotter, Assistant Vice President of Marketing for Integrated Development Group, the developer of The Club at Briarcliff Manor; Christine McCabe of Fortune Brokerage Group, LLC and President of the Estate Planning Council; Steven Schurkman of the law firm of Keane & Beane, P.C. and Treasurer of the Estate Planning Council; and attorney Susan Taxin Baer, a Director of the Estate Planning Council.

Located on a 59-acre wooded site overlooking the Hudson River, The Club at Briarcliff Manor is a fee-for-service Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC), currently under development, that will feature 325 Independent Living residences, world-class amenities and services and a 60-unit Supportive Living Center where a licensed and professional staff will provide assisted living, memory support and skilled nursing care on-site 24 hours a day. Move-ins at The Club at Briarcliff Manor will begin 2013. Integrated Development Group is developing The Club at Briarcliff Manor in a joint venture with the National Electrical Benefit Fund (NEBF), a Washington D.C. based pension fund with over $10 billion in assets. For more information about The Club at Briarcliff Manor, call (914) 923-4050 or visit www.TheClubBCM.com
